THE BIG QUESTIONS OF LIFE Mark Lindley

For ages man has pondered the big questions of life. Questions such as, where did I come from? Why am I here? And where am I going? These are the questions some of the greatest minds of the ages have attempted to answer.

I am persuaded that we are as eager today as ever to know the answers to these questions. We want to know the answers that we might live with a sense of purpose and direction, instead of aimlessly wandering through life.

Science has offered theories concerning the origin of man, but the prevailing theory, Darwinian evolution, is not to my mind, believable. No one has ever observed a non-human give birth to a human, nor can an experiment be conducted to prove that our distant cousins were apes. The "missing link" is still missing.

"True" science has made amazing advances in medicine, technology, cosmology, but science cannot tell us the origin of life and man. Of course there are theories, but scientific theories regarding these matters are ever-changing and remain theories.

Even if science could tell us our true origin, it still could not answer the questions of "why" we are here or "where" we are going. For answers to these questions, we must turn to a different source.

For those who believe in the inspiration of the Bible, these questions have been answered. God created man in His own image (Genesis 1:26-27). Our purpose is to bring glory and honor to God by fearing Him and keeping His commandments (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14). We are all destined for the grave, the resurrection, judgment, and heaven or hell (Hebrews 9:27; Acts 17:30-31; John 5:28-29). Having an understanding of these things radically changes our perspective on life. Instead of being highly-evolved blobs of matter-in-motion, we are created "a little lower than the angels" (Psalm 8:3-5). Rather than dying as a beast of the field and ceasing to exist at death, we can anticipate that when this life is over, we will "fly away" as our spirits return unto to God who created them (Psalm 90:10; Ecclesiastes 12:7). Rather than facing death with fear and dread, Christians can view death as a happy departure to be with the Lord and the saved of all ages (Psalm 23:4; Philippians 1:21-23)!

Thanks be to God for giving us His Word which answers the great questions of life! The real question is this: Will we believe and obey it?

If I Win The Power Ball...
by Steve Higginbotham

The jackpot for tomorrow's Powerball has reached a world record of 1.5 billion dollars. Whoever picks the lucky numbers will receive a 1.5 billion dollar annuity paid out over 30 years or a cash total worth $930 million.

The millions of Americans who have purchased lottery tickets in hopes of winning this 1.5 billion dollar prize have, no doubt, imagined what they would do if they won the jackpot. Surely, near the top of the list for most people would be, "I'd give a big chunk to my church." But let's think about that for a second.

I'm reminded of the preacher who once went to a rather wealthy business man in his congregation to ask for a donation for some much-needed funds. The business man looked rather shocked that the preacher would ask him for a donation, so said to the preacher, "Are you not aware that my mother needs 24 hour nursing care?" "No," said the preacher. "Are you not aware that my children have accumulated several hundred thousand dollars worth of student loan debt?" Again, the preacher said, "No." "Are you not aware that my sister is widowed and trying to raise her five children on a waitress' salary?" Feeling a bit embarrassed at this point, the preacher again softly said, "No, I didn't." Then the businessman said, "Preacher, if I won't help any of them, then what makes you think I'd help you?"

The purpose for the illustration above is to demonstrate that whether we help the church or not has little to do with how much money we have or what our circumstances in life are. It boils down to a matter of the heart.

Just think how much money "the church" would have if all these people who plan to give a big chunk of their winnings to the church would have given to the church the two dollars their lottery ticket cost? The cause of Christ doesn't need an improbable lucky winner to leave a fortune, it needs an army of faithful servants who are willing to make a sacrifice with the little they have.

To all those who seek to give a "great sum" of money to the church if they win the $1.5 billion jackpot, I would like to remind you of what Jesus said about the Scribes who gave to the treasury out of their great abundance and the poor widow who sacrificially gave out of her poverty (Luke 21:1-4). Tell me, which did the Lord praise?

A Week of Good Thoughts

Suppose we start this very day To live our lives in a different way; Suppose we vowed and constantly tried To help those in trouble on life's wayside; If we showed by our deeds a hint of His love Wouldn't earth be a bit more like heaven above?

ON MONDAY: Look for a smile today and return it with one of your own. Give someone faith and hope, it's such a beautiful loan.

ON TUESDAY: Gather a thought that's kind, one that's sincere and deep. Be sure to pass it along for such are too precious to keep.

ON WEDNESDAY: Forget yesterday's sorrows, mistakes, sadness, and pain. Lift your heart with hope as flowers to sun and rain.

ON THURSDAY: Offer a word of comfort and prayer to help someone in need. A little thoughtful gift, some flowers, or a smile makes us all rich indeed.

ON FRIDAY: You shall not pass this way again, so do any good you can do. Don't put it off till tomorrow or the chance may be lost for you.

ON SATURDAY: Today will soon be a memory so don't let it come to an end, without a smile, without a song, or just a word from a friend.

ON SUNDAY: Don't let worry and care depress you, or brush your joy away. But arise and give thanks to God above, for His love and another 'Blest Day.'

"...let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others" (Philippians 2:3-4).
