"I FEEL SAVED" Mark Lindley

The Bible teaches that God wants His children to feel saved. David pled, "Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit" (Psalm 51:12). Paul admonished: "Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice" (Philippians 4:4). Christians should have inner joy and peace, and should "feel" saved.

On the other hand, one should never base one's salvation on how one feels. Feelings can be misleading, and they do not always reflect reality. It is possible for a person to "feel" saved, but be lost. For this reason, one should never rely on feelings as proof of salvation.

Many years ago, my parents and I had planned to attend a church function together. However, we had planned to take different vehicles. My parents left for the church gathering about twenty minutes before I did. Just before I got into my truck, I was told that there had been a bad wreck and that people were injured or possibly killed. The wreck had occurred on the same road my parents would have been travelling as they were on their way to the church activity. Then, I "felt" it. I "knew" my parents had been injured or possibly killed in the terrible wreck. I rushed to the scene. As I approached, I could see the traffic was backed-up. Sirens were wailing; emergency lights, flashing; emergency responders, rushing. As I began to see the twisted metal of the wreck, my heart was pounding. Tears had begun to flow. I was panicking!

I quickly scanned the scene but did not see the car my parents had been driving! I asked someone who the people were involved in the crash. I did not recognize the names. [The victims of the wreck were taken and treated at a local hospital, and though their injuries were serious, fortunately, no one was killed.] My feelings had been intense, even gut-wrenching, and...wrong!

This personal illustration shows how feelings do not always reflect reality. This principle holds true in regard to feelings about salvation. Saul of Tarsus "felt" saved while persecuting Christians (Acts 8:3; 23:1; 26:9). Nevertheless, Saul was wrong in his actions. His zeal was misguided. Later, Saul realized this and obeyed the Gospel (Acts 9:1-6; 22:16; 9:18).

After becoming a Christian, he wrote the following passage that reveals how one can know, for a certainty, that one is saved: "But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness" (Romans 6:17-18). One is made free from sin when one obeys the Gospel, not merely when one "feels" saved.

Let us be certain that our salvation is based, not on "feelings," but rather on the knowledge that we have obeyed the Gospel!

God Made You!
David Sproule

Sometimes, when something is so obvious and so basic, we often will not give much attention to it and lose sight of its place in our lives. However, it is often those things that are the most obvious and the most basic that we need to be reminded of on a regular basis, in order to help us stay focused on what is truly important.

On the wall in the children's Bible classroom was a small laminated poster with the image of two little hands and the words in bold print across the top: "GOD MADE YOU!" Boys and girls need to be reminded of this great truth over and over, but they're not the only ones. Grown-up boys and girls (i.e., men and women) need to be reminded of this great truth over and over! GOD MADE YOU!

God made you, which means that He loves you! Psalm 100 beautifully reminds us, "It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves" (v. 3). As such, you are a special object of His love and affection. Read 1 John 4—"Love is of God...God is love...He loved us...God so loved us...His love has been perfected in us...we have known and believed the love that God has for us...He first loved us" (4:7-19). God loves you!

God made you, which means that He wants the best for you! Earthly fathers want what is best for their children, but that pales in comparison to God's care for us. "If you then...know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!" (Matt. 7:11). God wants the best for you!

God made you, which means that He has plans for you! Jesus affirmed, "I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). The Lord wants you to have an abundant life in His Son on this earth and then to enjoy eternal life in the home He has prepared for you in heaven (1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; 2 Cor. 5:1-8). God has special plans for you!

God made you, which means that you have a wonderful purpose! You have the greatest purpose that could ever be assigned—to bring glory to God! Almost three millennia ago, God spoke of His people, "Whom I have created for My glory" (Isa. 43:7). Therefore, Christians are instructed, "Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God" (1 Cor. 10:31). Think about the all-inclusive scope of that statement—"whatever you do." There is nothing in your life that is not encompassed in that! God has a purpose for you!

God made you! What an awesome thought! It's not just something that little kids need to learn. It's a blessed truth that must be ever before our hearts—we have been made by God and in the image of God! May our lives glorify Him!

Caged

Roger Campbell, Cleveland, Tennessee

A boy with a rusty birdcage walked by a preacher. "What are you going to do with that bird?" asked the preacher.

"Oh, I'm just going to poke sticks at it, shake the cage, throw water on it . . . fun things like that."

"What are you going to do after that?"

"I don't know; probably just feed it to the cats."

"How much do you want for it?" asked the preacher.

"Aw, you don't want it; it's just an old field bird. It doesn't sing or nothin'."

"How much?"

The boy thought awhile, and then said, "Two dollars." The preacher paid it. The boy grinned, and pocketed his money. Then he watched to see what the preacher would do with the bird. The preacher just opened the cage and turned it loose. The boy walked away, shaking his head over the craziness of some people.

The minister had something else in mind. Sin has "caged" each one of us and Satan has mankind in his grasp. Jesus asks, "What are you going to do with them?"

"I'm just going to have fun with them. I'm going to tease them. I'm going to bring heartache and pain into their lives."

"And after that?"

"Well, when I get tired, I will take them to eternal destruction."

"I will buy them," says Jesus.

"You couldn't possibly want them! They will despise You, use Your name in vain and reject You. Then they will kill You."

"I will give my life."

Jesus paid the price, and set us free (Ephesians 1:7). Won't you accept His offer on His terms?
