A JOYOUS FEW MINUTES

James Pilgrim

The writer is so joyous over a telephone call he received on Thursday, June 23, 2022. He had a message on his telephone from a daughter of Cecil Parker, to call him. It is a joy to speak to children of God. (2 John 12; 3 John 1-8, 14). Some calls are complimentary over something that the receiver of the phone call has done. This brings joy. Others are invitations to do certain things. This brings happiness. Even constructive criticisms are occasions for happiness. Good news is always a thrill. So much more could be said. This call was such a joy for so many reasons. Cecil Parker is a faithful brother in Christ (3 John 1-8) and has been since 1978. Brother Parker has been a beloved disciple of the Lord Jesus Christ for many more years. He not only helped build churches where he attended over the years, but he did what he could to support loyal congregations in the area where he lived. He and his devout Christian wife (1 Peter 3:7; Romans 16:3-5) always supported the West Concord Church, where the writer preached and served as one of the elders, in gospel efforts. Following the death of his beloved and loyal Christian wife, brother Parker and two other brethren, C. A. Prater and Hal Kennedy, were so good to support and encourage the church. One wonders how many services brother Parker has attended through the years. (Hebrews 10:25).

Brother Parker has been an example (1 Timothy 4:12) to so many through the years. He has been true light for others. (Matthew 5:14-16). What a friend he has been to so many gospel preachers in so many ways, even to the writer in the latest telephone call. True to form, the phone call was filled with Biblical thoughts. He expressed his love for Sammie and me (Matthew 22:39; John 13:35), looked forward to living eternally with us and the saved of all ages (Matthew 25:46), and coveted our prayers, assuring us that he would pray for us.

Sammie had the last words with brother Parker on that call, and she assured him of our love for him.

By the way, our beloved brother Cecil Parker turned one hundred three (103) years old this past May 5, 2022. To God be the glory for this precious brother, and for the good he has done. It is hoped that this brief and limited article may encourage you to be a Christian and remain Steadfast. (1 Corinthians 15:57, 58).
