Showing Everyday Faith
by: Edd Sterchi

* The respect you show God and His Word on Sundays says a lot about your faith in Him.
* The attitude you show the world on Mondays says a lot about your faith in God.
* How much time you spend reading your Bible and in prayer on Tuesdays says a lot about your faith in God.
* The number of brethren you visit with on Wednesdays says a lot about your faith in God.
* The opportunities and resources you utilize in helping the needy on Thursdays says a lot about your faith in God.
* The amount of energy and frequency you use teaching/telling others about Jesus on Fridays says a lot about your faith in God.
* Where you go and what you do on Saturdays says a lot about your faith in God.

Now, I realize that all of these pertain to every aspect of our Christianity every day. I just thought it would be a way to help us realize that we are to take up our cross daily and follow Jesus (Luke 9:23). Do you sacrifice for Christ daily as Paul did (1 Cor. 15:31)?
Handling Disagreements

Anyone can be involved in an argument. Paul and Barnabas are reminders that even faithful brethren are not immune from having disagreements (Acts 15:35-41). Occasionally, our disagreements get out of hand and we end up saying things we later regret. So what are some safeguards we can use in handling disagreements in a Christian way? Here are a few suggestions with the help of the book of Proverbs:

Be friendly. Try not to be adversarial in your point of view. "He that hath friends must show himself friendly" and "A friend loveth at all times" (Prov. 18:24; 17:17).

Ever use kindness. Cordiality goes a long way towards maintaining tranquility. "A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger" (Prov. 15:1).

Let up some. Most disagreements would remain friendly if we would just back off a little. ". . .but he that refraineth his lips is wise" (Prov. 10:19).

Overcome with good. Oftentimes in the heat of an argument we lavish out in retaliation. "Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me" (Prov. 24:29).

Value their opinion. Listen attentively to what others have to say. "He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him" (Prov. 18:13).

Introduce soothing words. You can get your point across in a nice way. "Pleasant words are as honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones" (Prov. 16:24).

Never engage irate behavior. If a disagreement becomes ugly - conversation over! "Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee" (Prov. 4:24).

Grow taller. The desire to win an argument often escalates it. Bigger people will refuse. ". . . Therefore leave off contention, before it be meddled with" (Prov. 17:14).
